

Cal Sumner

I'm a creative designer with experience across digital, print, motion design and illustration. After several years in the design industry, I've realised that what I value most is the craft itself – finessing the small but important details, learning new skills, and creating something to be proud of.

With experience producing high-quality visual work, I bring a strong eye for detail, patience, and a commitment to seeing things through to a professional finish. I'm reliable, curious, and genuinely excited to collaborate and learn from skilled professionals and develop within my own field.

Experience

Creative Designer / The Growth Foundation

May 23 – Oct 25

Worked across print and digital design projects, often developing brand identities and packaging from concept to completion. This role demanded precision, problem-solving, and an ability to translate ideas into carefully considered finished pieces. I enjoyed the process of planning, experimenting, and refining until everything felt just right.

- Managed multiple projects and client relationships simultaneously
- Mentored junior designers and maintained quality standards across all work
- Developed strong project management and practical communication skills

Mid-weight Graphic Designer / Social Republic

Nov 2021 – Mar 2023

Promoted from Junior Designer after demonstrating consistent reliability, creativity, and attention to detail. Oversaw the work of a junior designer while managing my own projects and deadlines.

- Planned, prioritised and delivered work to tight schedules
- Collaborated with a variety of clients and external partners
- Took pride in maintaining high standards of finish and presentation

Graphic Designer / Vulse

May 2019 – Mar 2023

Supported the early design stages of a start-up brand, from concept sketches to a live product.

- Built and designed the company website and visual identity
- Worked closely with developers to solve practical challenges
- Created presentation materials to attract investment

Junior Graphic Designer / Social Republic

May 2019 – Nov 2021

Started as a Junior Designer and gained experience in creative production, organisation, and teamwork. Developed a disciplined approach to projects, accuracy under pressure, and pride in a well-crafted result.
